Re: Floyd v. City of New York (Docket No. 13-3088)
Ligon v. City of New York (Docket No. 13-3123)

Dear Ms. Wolfe:

In response to an inquiry during yesterday's oral argument, defendant-appellant City of New York respectfully submits this letter and requests that it be distributed to the panel members (Judges Cabranes, Walker, and Parker).

As reflected in statistics published on the NYPD's website at the end of 2012 (see http://www.nyc.gov/html/nypd/html/analysis_and_planning/crime_and_enforcement_activity.shtml), minorities comprise 52.6% of the NYPD's approximately 23,000 police officers – those most likely to conduct a Terry stop: 47.4% are white, 17.1% are black, 29.0% are Hispanic, 6.5% are Asian, and 0.1% are Native American or other.

When officers of all ranks are included, the minority composition is 47.9%. The full breakdown is: 52.1% white, 16% black, 26.2% Hispanic, 5.6% Asian, and 0.1% Native American or other.

Respectfully submitted,

Celeste L. Koeleveld
